

Erickson Beamon crystal headpiece, $1,790, from Helen Rodrigues.

Couture Weddings gold-foiled invitation with envelope, $25 each, from Papier d'Amour.

Hermès dessert plates, $385 for a set of two.

Fendi clutch bag, $1,300.

Collette Dinnigan silk dress, $1,990.

Ceramic tureen, $128, from Pigott's Store.

Glass bowl, $225, from The Bay Tree. Macaroons, $4 each, from Donna Hay General Store.

Green queens

According to florist Tim Baber, owner of PoHo in Sydney's Potts Point, the traditional bouquet is now playing second fiddle to dressing the venue with blooms, with fresh white and green schemes or masses of antique toned blooms contrasted against bare branches. But old habits die hard, with many brides still favouring roses for their heady scent and luxurious beauty.

Mondial Neuman diamond ring, $22,000.

Leather wedding album with inscription, $350, from Papier d'Amour.

Teapot, $82, and sugar bowl, $26, from The Bay Tree.

Books to inspire

Paper cake, designed and handmade by James Gordon.

High Society by Nick Foulkes (Assouline, $71).

Inspirations by Preston Bailey (Butfinch Press, $32).

Owner Theyskens, The Other Side of the Picture by Sally Singer (Assouline, $131).

Embroidered pillows, $55 each, from Plane Tree Farm.

Annick Goutal Un Matin d'Orange EDT, 100ml for $190.

Cotton & Co. necklace, $180.

Miu Miu shoes, $840.

Jenny Packham garter, $75, from Helen Rodrigues.

Smythson jewellery box, from $1,632.